KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. An ideal guide to a beautiful city.Von J. DonnellyThis guide is short and to the point. It is written for a two-day city break and is perfect for that. The author takes us on a tour with plenty of information of the places she visits and great directions for finding your way about. Also, plenty of links are supplied for different attractions, museums etc., so there is no excuse for not doing a bit of homework before you set off. The writing style is clear and to the point, no place for frilly page filling descriptions here.There was, however, one glaring misprint in which the Wenceslas Square shopping district "is renowned as Budapest's main shopping area".So if you are looking for a pleasant and concise guide for a break in Prague you will not find a better buy than this.
