 Eigentlich war ich mit Lehrwerken zu Hebrisch bereits versorgt und brauchte kein Buch für komplette Anfänger, doch eine Empfehlung und ebenso die guten Kundenrezensionen haben mich dann doch aufhorchen lassen. Wie der Titel verrät geht es bei "Colloquial Hebrew" um das umgangssprachliche, sprich moderne Hebrisch. Mir persönlich hilft es zusätzlich weiter, denn das Werk ist nicht nur nach Alltagsthemen und dem dazugehörigen Wortschatz sortiert, sondern auch sauber nach der Grammatik gegliedert. Erklärt wird ausführlich und mit Texten untermauert. Zu schätzen weiß ich auch die Dialoge - wo hat man sonst die Chance, gesprochenes Hebrisch zu hören. Die dazugehörige CD muss leider separat gekauft werden, aber es lohnt sich.

 Highly accessible - well, as much as possible
 Von Dominique
 I am not an expert on literature for studying Hebrew, but I feel that this is one of the best books for "serious beginners", i.e., beginners who intend to learn the language thoroughly. If you only want to learn some Hebrew quickly for your next holidays in Israel, this book is not the right choice. The presentation includes a lot of grammar and reading practice to lay the foundation for a steep learning curve. However, right in the beginning, although you learn a lot, you will not be able to speak immediately. Hence, be careful, getting familiar with the foundations of the language takes quite a while (depending on how much time you invest, I'd say, between a week and a month), but after that, the "practical" learning curve is pretty steep, and you quickly learn how to maintain a simple conversation in Hebrew. I feel that the structure of the book makes sense. The first chapter takes long, but the other chapters are much faster to work with. The book is not very similar to the colored schoolbooks we are used to, but well, colors and pictures are not so important for your understanding. Nice dialogues and good explanations definitely make up for the lack of colors. And, nicely enough, there are pictures from time to time :-)
 So, yes, I definitely think that the presentation is very accessible and does not require any prerequisites --- unlike "The Routledge Introductory Course in Modern Hebrew", that is praised for its good grammar presentation. The recordings on the CD are very suitable to accompany the course and indispensable, if you are not in Israel while learning Hebrew. So, overall, a great book to start with.
 Good luck and have fun!

 Von Susanne Rhmann
 Der Aufbau dieses Buches gefällt mir sehr gut und die vielen Übungen sind wirklich hilfreich. Was ich jedoch regelmäßig finde ist das relativ kleine Format. Die hebrischen Buchstaben sind sehr klein, so dass es für mich noch ziemlich anstrengend ist, die Zeichen voneinander zu unterscheiden. Daher nur 4 Sterne, trotzdem sehr empfehlenswert. Vielleicht gibt es ja auch mal eine deutsche Ausgabe?!
