KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Up to date, colloquial, and conversational, but not thoroughVon Ein KundeInsufficient exercises and shallowness in the explanations of grammar are the biggest problems with this book. Use it as a supplement to a more thorough text, though, and it is very useful. The dialogues have very good content and the recorded versions are excellent--easy to listen to and not at all dry or stilted. The tapes also have question-and-answer sections where you can practice your spoken Hungarian. It's better than the average Teach Yourself books, so if you like that style you can expect satisfaction from this. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. It rather circles its intended purpose. Von Ein Kunde Teach Yourself Hungarian could do a little better. It's great if you're going to visit Hungary and not gain full proficiency, but it seems to fail being an effective grammatical text. First mistake--it starts off with dialogs, afterwards giving you a lengthy vocabulary list. The book may be for you if you can learn off of phrases alone, rather than taking apart each phrase and looking at a language word-by-word. If you are truly looking to 'teach yourself', may it be suggested to try something else 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Pedagogical and interesting Von PTI think the book strikes a fine balance covering Hungarian grammar, vocabulary, culture, and pronunciation, while making language-learning more enjoyable with interesting dialogues and nice illustrations. I highly recommend the pedagogical approach of the author.
