explanation of the gifts of the Holy Spirit Von Ein Kunde Every reader of the New Testament is faced with amountain of evidence of the life-changing power and events that characterized the worship and experience of the early church. Gee, a pastor, Bible teacher, and world traveler, describes how a growing expectation of God's surging power in daily life today, as in the first century, is leading to "an enjoyment of [the church's] pristine inheritance of supernatural gifts of the Spirit and [a rediscovery of] the Living Christ." (p.132) This little (143 small pages) gem is for everyone- Presbyterians, Roman Catholics, Baptists, Pentecostals, and all others. It is one of the clearest and simplest explanations of the gifts of the Holy Spirit for today's church in print today
