Pressestimmen Full of stirring wisdom that's particularly relevant to entrepreneurs but also to anyone chasing success (Publisher's Weekly) A fast read and an inspirational one: Australian serial entrepreneur and author (Happiness Is, 2009) Messenger tells it like it is, offering a path to success that involves not only hard work but also guts and no small amount of determination. And she inspires by simply telling her own story, following a bare-bones outline of 10 actions. From believe in yourself (sound familiar?) to do good, Messenger peppersevery overpromoted cliché with real stories. Like the time she dreamed about starting a publishing empire while atop a Marrakesh roof. Or how she overcame the fear of public speaking. Even her brand tips connections are king; secure all your names as fast as you can have relevance in todays insanely busy work world. And it all ends with this: Make money so you can make a difference. Simple advice, well-put. (Barbara Jacobs - Booklist online)
