Von Luigi Cozzi, Federico Patrizi, Antonio Tentori : Dario Argento AND THE MAKING OF DEEP RED (PROFONDO ROSSO) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dario Argento AND THE MAKING OF DEEP RED (PROFONDO ROSSO):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nice Overview over the quintessential Argento gialloVon O. WrobelDeep Red is the best Dario Argento giallo of all times.

This book tells all you ever wanted to know about this masterwork from 1975. Nuff said :)

KurzbeschreibungForty years ago, in the summer of 1974, Dario Argento directed his masterpiece DEEP RED, one of the most famous and admired thrillers ever made. This volume, edited by Luigi Cozzi, analyzes the genesis and the making of DEEP RED, featuring pictures, essays and interviews with actors Daria Nicolodi and Gabriele Lavia, scriptwriter Bernardino Zapponi, plus Claudio Simonetti and other members of Goblin, who composed DEEP REDs extraordinary music score. The book includes an exclusive interview with Dario Argento.
