never heard of before. The de-la-Cruz-brothers had been sent to fight vampires in the Southern Americas. As they only travel through the -region, I guess we'll get some for the plains of Argentina and maybe someone for Mexico (and the small countries towards South America) in some later issue. Juliette (what is that with non-fitting names to the region? It is a French-English name, not Portuguese and not Spanish) Sangria is of Jaguar decent and able to shift shape contrary to most descendants of that race as their blood is too diluted. She and her sister Jasmine come upon a laboratory of the Morrison Center. Riordan has been captured (how is not told exactly) and is freed by Juliette whom he recognizes as his mate. Conveniently, Juliette seems to be in heat (as per her Jaguar-blood) and they start mating, but come aware that Jasmine might be in danger as Juliette has not drawn the guards from Jasmine's trail, so they get out of their cave. As jaguar-males are even more dominant than Carpathians and not willing to share females capable of shifting, we learn that they abduct and rape those females in order to keep the blood as pure as possible. This will become significant later in the series. Due to this fact, Jasmine and Solange are not keen on living close to men or having anything to do with them.

Klar, ist die alte Geschichte -Karpatianer trifft das Licht seines Lebens- aber hier ist Juliette auch mit einem Geheimnis belastet. Sie gehört zu den Formwandlern, dem Jaguar Volk. Allerdings sind deren Männer nicht so nett wie die Karpatianer und zeugen wie wild mit den Frauen Kinder, damit sie nicht aussterben. So müssen Riordan und Juliette mit Cousine Solange noch schnell das Schwesterchen retten, die entführt wurde und dann wird erst aus Julie eine Karpatianerin. Warum allerdings Riordan das ganze Comic hindurch zerissene Kleidung trägt und barfuß bleibt und warum Julie sich am Ende nicht mehr in einen Jaguar sondern nur in einen Panther verwandeln kann, wo doch die Karpatianer das sonst so gut können - perfekt kleiden und in jedes Tier wandeln - verstehe ich nicht, wie aber vielleicht zu komplex für das Manga geworden. Vermutlich hat man es dann wohl nur, wenn man wie ich, die anderen Geschichten auch kennt und weiß, was sie können und machen. Vielleicht lockt es so aber den einen oder anderen an das Buch heran. Nett, gemacht, auch wenn die obligatorische Auseinandersetzung mit dem Vampir drin vorkam und kurz war und außer den erwähnten Leuten kaum Figuren dabei waren (ein Wachmann, ein paar Jaguar-Männer).

Von CADie Reihe befasst sich mit Karpatianern, die ihre Lebensgefährtin finden müssen, damit sie wieder Licht, Farben und auch Gefühle genießen können. In diesem Fall ist es Riordan, der seine Liebe in Gestalt einer Gestaltenwandlerin findet. Wie und was passiert am besten selber lesen und dabei auch die wunderschöne Sprache von Christine Feehan bewundern.
