It kind of reminds me of astro boy. But you get used to the style (it definetly is different than modern manga style)The story is alright. I didn't have too much expectation, so i really wasn't dissappointed when it turned out better.

Kurzbeschreibung Claire has been raising her young brother with determination ever since their parents' deaths. After she's invited to a high-class hotel for a bit of a breather, she encounters a foreign man with a baby in the dining room. As the baby rocks the chair back and forth, he nearly falls over, but Claire manages to catch him! At that same moment, she finds herself staring into the eyes of the foreign man, Raoul. And then, without warning, the sound of gunfire begins to ring through the dining room!
