Review written by 4th grade ESL studentsVon Ein KundeThe book is about a girl named Maria Isabel. She had to move and leave her best friend Clara. At her new school, her teacher called her Mary Lopez because there were two other Marias in the class. Maria Isabel didn't like it. Maria Isabel kept getting in trouble and missing out on things because she didn't know who Mary Lopez was. She wrote an essay about her greatest wish. Will her wish come true? The book is cool and great!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. This book is awesome.Von Ein KundeAs a teacher I think this book is great for all children. It teaches cultural sensitivity and about the conflict between maintaining a minority culture and adapting to the dominant culture. For any child, it can provoke discussion about names and nicknames. This book made me cry and is a very touching story with a happy ending.
