Waste of money and timeVon PeschaeWell, maybe I was expecting something completely different from this book (being lured into buying it by 's automated recommendation after buying "The Backpacker" or "Lost in the Jungle"), but even from an objective point of view: Don't buy this crap. The author is a testosterone-driven boozier on a quest to shag as many third world country women as possible, amazingly claiming to be a true adventurer at the same time. The low standard of this guy is only matched by the standard of his written language. If I have to read stuff like this from a low-level hick, I'd prefer something that's actually being funny despite all the cheap sex, booze and vomit (like Tucker Max). The large amount of orthographic mistakes speaks for itself.0 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Oh je...Von KundeUnreife Ergsse eines Sptpubertierenden. Great read!Von PascalI've been a reader of Naughtys blog for quite some time and always enjoyed his crazy stories, so i jumped on the opportunity to get his book on the first day when it was released.What can I say I was not disappointed. I blasted through this book in one day and was very entertained following this crazy guy around the world and reading about his sexual escapades.It's a great and inspiring read and makes me wanna pack my shit and hit the road to have some crazy adventures myself.It left me with a longing feeling of wanting to see the world.It also inspired me to visit some countries i never considered travelling to before. Especially his tales about Africa made me really curious to visit that continent.5 stars from me.
