Earthy SpiritualityVon Colin AndrewsThis was the first book by Richard Rohr that I read a while back it encouraged me to read more of his works.Rohr brings home the reality of the Incarnation in earthy language enables the reader to connect with the "human" Christ. The reader can't help but be enthralled by the sheer reality and humanness of Jesus. So different from the portrait many authors paint of the Christ nowadays. Rohr also brings the truth of the initiative of God in phrases like "God is not just an experience of mine, but more rightly, I am an experience in the mind heart of God." His description of God as "A trinitarian God is a God in relationship" is brilliant. This book has been on the market for a while I would recommend it to anyone who is struggling to come to grips with the "human" Jesus.
