Kurzbeschreibung(This book is written in Russian language. Russian)The old - modern histories. Life goes on. In this collection I collected all those stories which on any unknown to me to the reasons weren't included in my previous collections Stories different: about people and things, about children and animals, about pain and blood in our life, about pleasures and everyday life of simple people. Germans, Russians, French, Kazakh's and Americans - all of us are people, we love everything and we dream. But life goes on, so and modern histories not far off!_____ : , , , .
