Von Thornton W. (Thornton Waldo), 1874-1965 Burgess : The Adventures of Old Mr. Toad before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Adventures of Old Mr. Toad:

NelsonReading these books was fun for me as a child but I never enjoyed them as much as Beatrix Potter. The english author wrote in a more mature, fairy tale style that children could still relate to while these books have more of a folk tale background. However, some of Burgesses books are better than this one and I urge you to read Reddy Fox instead of Mr Toad.
