First, Sister Bear gets invited to a slumber party at her friend Lizzy's house. She tells her that only a few friends will be over.It turns out, many, many more kids come to Lizzy's slumber party. The slumber party turns into a popcorn throwing, soda-spilling mess because Lizzy's parents weren't home during the slumber party.The neighbors call the police since so much noise is coming from Lizzy's house and everyone has to go home.In the end, Sister Bear learns more about responsibility and her parents do too. I liked this book. It teaches a good lesson but it's also fun.
