Good introduction to golfVon jwalsh@email.bony.comThis book will enable the beginning golfer to carry a reasonably intelligent conversation while hitting the links the first time. A couple of minor rules errors (e.g., a provisional ball should be hit from the place the lost ball was hit, not from the place the golfer thinks it got lost) do nothing to detract from the enjoyment of this book, and it is truly useful. While the free lesson given in this book will do nothing to help your game (never take a lesson from someone who hasn't played the game in years), this book will definitely help you on the 19th hole.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Jack of all trades and master of noneVon Ein Kundelf you are into a bit of golf trivia, history, or even instruction this is your book. The only problem is, none of these areas are covered in depth. I was a bit disappointed.
