How disappointing it is to read a book that somewhat challenges you, only to later see the Author at a conference and quickly realise he is nothing but hype. Tommy, you disappoint me. I request that you please stop quoting Tozer as if you share any commonality in thought or theology. Tozers preaches a changed LIFESTYLE, not mere excitement and experience. Dear reader, if you're a Pentecostal (as I am), and simply want to find the 3 step guide to this or the 4 S's to this, or perhaps you want to find the right "Praise-Phrase" to unlock God's power (unbelievable), then this book is probably right up your alley. If on the other hand you want to hear from a man that truly is a God Chaser, forget Tommy's revenue raising, Tozer quoting books, and go directly to the quoted, AW Tozer's, The Pursuit of God. After re-reading the God Chasers since seeing Tommy live, I saw through the well polished stories designed to excite you, but hardly challenge you or bring about real change in the reader. As Tommy says at the end of Chapter 1, "you are barely holding back the tears now", what emotional drivel. It's not (just) about feeling or emotions, or even tears Tommy, it's about the stuff Tozer speaks of, a changed man, a lifestyle that hungers and thirst's for the face, for the glory of His face. Before you challenge my boldness, PLEASE go and see a Tommy T conference and see for yourself, "for many shall come in that day".0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. I could not put this book downVon RouseIf you are tired of church as usual, this book is for you. Mr Tenney refreshes us to stir up the move of God again in our lives through his unique observations and God given insights.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The God ChasersVon Ein KundeI did not read the book, but heard the tape series by the same title. On the tapes, Tenney cries at times but it seems that he is pretending, or making himself cry. Also, he tries to make his voice sound as if he feels "broken". I am not saying that he is definitely pretending, but it sounds that way. Also, I am not saying that he is insincere, but that maybe he thinks that he has to sound like this. I encourage readers to try evaluating his teachings in a detached way before embracing his ministry. If he is really OK, then fine, but do not just assume he is that great.

KurzbeschreibungA God chaser is a person whose passion for God's presence presses him to chase the impossible in hopes that the uncatchable might catch him. A child chases a loving parent until, suddenly, the strong arms of the father enfold the chaser. The pursuer becomes the captive; the pursued the captor. Paul put it this way: "I chase after that I may catch that which apprehended me" (Phil. 3:12).Job was a God chaser. He said, "Oh that I knew where I might find Him!" David was one; he said, "My soul followeth hard after Thee." Paul was one too: "That I may know Him..." The passionate paths of God chasers can be traced across the pages of history from Moses the stutterer, David the singer, and Paul the itinerant preacher, to contemporaries like A.W. Tozer, Leonard Ravenhill, and countless others who share one common bond: an insatiable hunger to know their Lord. These are people whose relentless, passionate pursuit of Christ often made them appear foolish in the eyes of others. Yet, having tasted His goodness and glimpsed the invisible, they could be satisfied with nothing less.Add your name to the list...become a God chaser. Who know? You might be one whom He catches.
